Automatic Indexing of Lecture Videos Using Syntactic Similarity | Periyar Maniammai University -

Thanjavur Abstract:

This work presents a method for automatically indexing lecture videos using syntactic similarity. By transcribing spoken content and analyzing sentence structures, key segments are matched with user queries based on syntactic patterns. This improves search accuracy and makes it easier to find specific topics within lecture videos compared to keyword-based methods.

July - 2023

Abstract:
